High up in the snowy mountains the villagers of Dorta bang pots and pans and blow their horns to keep the fearsome Mountain Dragon away

Then one morning Mimi discovers something extraordinary, a baby dragon asleep in the woodshed. The little creature is lost and frightened but what happens when his mother comes looking for him?

Mimi must be brave on her journey to reach the Dragon's castle at the top of the mountain and reunite the baby with its mother.

Skewbald bring to life Michael Morpurgo's captivating tale in this exciting puppetry musical especially for families and children aged 3+ and everyone who loves stories.
